 Chapter 1 *****

Your individuality. Your personality.
Your emotional needs. Your mentality.

To find the ideal profession, you have to know yourself first. There are activities you are suited for according to your nature, and others you are not. Your ideal occupation should favor the expression of your individuality (Sun) and your personality (Rising Sign), satisfy your emotional needs (Moon) and permit the development of your intellect (Mercury).

YOUR INDIVIDUALITY: Sun in Capricorn

You were born under the sign of CAPRICORN and your ruling planet is Saturn, the planet of patience, wisdom and maturity.

Your Sun sign is CARDINAL and this indicates that you were born to be a leader, either in thought or action. You are never completely satisfied in a subordinate position carrying out the ideas of others, unless they are part of your aspirations. You are comfortable working independently or occupying a leadership position.

Capricorn is an EARTH sign and this makes you realistic, practical and concrete. You will have a strong desire to accomplish material goals and need to feel that your career or enterprises permit you to grow a little more each year.

You are very responsible, industrious and tenacious. You are strong and independent and are able to make great efforts and sacrifices to reach your goals. Your realistic and practical sense of life permits you to solve many problems, and your deep and serious manner generates much confidence and respect from people around you. You have an innate ability to organize and direct people, but prefer to work alone. Life may bring difficulties and challenges for you, but also gives you the necessary strength to succeed in your endeavors.

You are traditional and conservative; you are not interested in attracting attention nor are you waiting for recognition for your efforts. You are the support of your family and the one who assumes the bulk of responsibilities. You are not likely to maintain a great social life, but have a protective and paternal attitude with your few friends; you offer yourself fully once a feeling of trust has developed. You have a firm mind and a difficult time changing your objective or opinions; your patience and perseverance is admirable.

You were born to impose order, to be organized and cautious, to observe procedures and traditions, to work arduously, to investigate, to teach and to educate. Your missions are to direct and guide weaker people, to assume responsibilities and to transmit safety and confidence to those who need it, to teach others to economize, to look at life with realism, to be practical, perfective, and mainly, to be persevering.

To evolve, your spirit needs to learn to relax, to enjoy life more, and to be less pessimistic or negative. You have to learn to demonstrate your affections and ideas more openly, and to overcome distrust or inner inhibitions. It will be necessary to conquer the inflexibility of your thoughts, the hatred, selfishness and the tendency to be fatalistic. Your excessive preoccupation with solutions for material things could lead you to neglect your spirituality and religious faith. You have to learn to delegate, to rely on others, and not to smother yourself with responsibilities that you assume.

YOUR PERSONALITY: Ascendant Aries

Others see you as a dynamic, bold, strong and very active person. No matter what weaknesses your Sun sign may indicate, this ascendant fills you with energy, assurance and assertiveness. You are not afraid of life and believe that you can handle any adversity. You love challenges and risky undertakings.

You have a lot of initiative and could easily become a leader. You like to give orders, but don't like to take them. You do not like restrictions to your personal freedom. You also are very impatient and your restlessness may turn into one of your worst deficiencies. You are always active and want to solve all the problems of your life instantly. You have to learn to be more persevering in your projects and not to get discouraged so quickly.

The profession you choose will have to encourage your independence, leadership, freedom, thrill of challenges and competitions; because of this you will have to avoid any sedentary, restrictive or very routine work.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NEEDS: Moon in Scorpio

Your emotions are very deep and lasting and you are zealous and very possessive. You want to share everything with the persons you love and want to spend all your time with them. Because of your strong emotions, you tend to manipulate and dominate others. Try to be more moderate, patient and understanding, otherwise your professional as well as your romantic life will be very tumultuous.

You are direct with your opinions and don't go along with the crowd. Although you appear to be strong, you are very sensitive and can easily become irritated or aggressive. You tend to harbor your anger or desire for revenge for a long time for injustices you may have experienced in the past. You have to learn to forgive and forget so that you can live with more freedom and harmony in the future.

You have a tendency to impose your will on others and to control the people around you. Your strong will allows you to successfully overcome crisis and you have the necessary strength to regenerate yourself again and again. You react abruptly and impulsively and don't tolerate interference from anybody or anything that crosses your path. On the other hand, you have a knack for research and detective work and are fascinated by mysteries.

Subconsciously, you have a strong desire to transform your life and that of others. In previous lives you may have suffered great emotional injuries and crises that have caused you to develop a strong instinct for survival and distrust toward the people that surround you. You also may have experienced violent situations, persecution or confrontation with powerful enemies. Many extreme changes and the loss of stability in the past may cause you to fight passionately for your loved ones and to defend your position aggressively in the present. In this incarnation you have to learn to relax, to be less anxious and to use your aggressiveness constructively.

The profession you choose will have to satisfy your emotional need to have power, independence and safety. You need to know that you can discover, investigate or transform something. You also need your own space and to be alone to accomplish your tasks without pressure.

YOUR MENTALITY: Mercury in Capricorn

You have a very realistic, scientific and cautious mind. You probably won't make decisions very quickly, as you tend to study carefully all the necessary steps to take. You are a very good organizer and also a very good leader. You are more drawn to studies of concrete subjects that teach about life itself. Your analytical mind will register each detail in your excellent memory. You are not likely to fantasize, because your practical mind doesn't like to lose time on dreams. You are very self-disciplined and very responsible with your studies.

Your way of communicating could be limited, as you tend to be very reserved and serious. In spite of your seriousness, you have a sarcastic sense of humor, which will allow you to alleviate some of the tensions of your own responsibilities. You are conservative, traditional and inflexible as far as your ideas are concerned. You have great powers of concentration and will persevere toward your goals. You will have to learn to be less materialistic, dogmatic and distrustful.

 Chapter 2 *****

Your abilities and your emotions, inhibitions and strengths.
Hidden talents or challenges, Karma.

The location of the planets in the houses and the relationship between them can increase or decrease their power. Aspects of the Sun are related to our strength and those of the Moon affect the emotional world and are expressed on a subconscious level.

Aspects that affect your INDIVIDUALITY:

Sun in 10th house:

You have great ability to lead others and to excel in the professional arena. You are inclined to put a lot of energy into that and it will insure a brilliant career. You will always be in the eye of the public and are likely to become a socially renowned figure. If your activity is related to the law or to other executive positions, your future success could be lessened.

You are very proud, a bit arrogant and have strong material ambitions. You don't consider yourself accomplished unless you have reached a higher position. You will try to exceed your initial social position by reaching greater status and recognition. You will be very satisfied with your achievements. A competitive spirit, you achieve a secure and controlled foothold in your life in general.

Sun conjunct Mercury:

You have a powerful mind, but can become very inflexible and stubborn in your opinions. It is important for you to think things through more thoroughly to avoid making premature decisions. You are ardent and tenacious in your projects and are very ambitious and creative in all of your undertakings.

Your mind is likely to be much faster than your body, which makes you feel that there never is enough time in a day and that you have to do everything immediately, or that other people hold you back. To avoid stress, you will have to organize your time in accordance with the tasks you are planning to undertake.

Aspects that affect your EMOTIONS:

Moon in 7th house:

You are responsive to the needs of others and could acquire prestige and a good reputation working with the public. You have charisma and the ability to stand out among others. Commercial as well as matrimonial associations are likely to be successful for you.

Moon Trine Mars:

You undertake your endeavors with great enthusiasm and your energy seems to be contagious. You are constructive, decisive and make your decisions rapidly. Others will rely on you and seek your support. You tend to have an abundance of physical energy which makes you qualified for activities that require physical effort.

Moon Trine Jupiter:

You possess a great sense of humor and are always very positive in every situation. Thanks to your friendly, generous and enthusiastic attitude, you are very popular. You tend to see life with optimism and don't let any problems defeat you. This astrological configuration could bring trips abroad and lead to a strong spirituality and a philosophical attitude toward life.

Moon Trine Saturn:

You are very serious and confident, which is to your advantage and will allow you to occupy important positions in your life. You are able to assume many responsibilities without getting overwhelmed by them. You can excel in executive and administrative posts. Having great emotional control, you don't let your feelings get the best of you nor do you make rushed decisions. You are a traditionalist and observe your own principles. This configuration augurs great success in the material world.

HIDDEN TALENTS: Aquarius on 12th house cusp

You tend to neglect your creative abilities and your originality. You are likely to be very dependent and unsure about expressing your opinions, especially when they are contrary to those of others or very fanciful. You have to learn to show your opposition and also your most unusual side of your personality. Totally complying with the rules and regulations could annul a large part of you. You have to develop your creative and artistic ability and channel your inspiration more toward things that interest you without waiting for approval from others.

You could be drawn into serious problems due to the negative influence or dishonesty of some friend. You will have to avoid participating in very closed groups, political parties or groups that show fanaticism in their ideas, because later on you could find yourself committed to them and unable to avoid them.

Uranus in 12th house:

Your wasted talent is the high degree of creativity you have. You probably are very different from others and tend to avoid expressing many of your real opinions, thereby wasting to a great degree your inventive potential. You are very intellectual, mystical and reserved; you are well suited for investigative projects or any other profession that is developed behind the scene.

* Chapter 3 *******
Expansion (Jupiter) and retraction (Saturn).
To give and to receive.

EXPANSION: Jupiter in Cancer

Your sense of expansion manifests in your desire to protect and support others. You are strongly attached to everything that touches your heart. Your home and your community will always be very important to you, and you love to collect antiques. The feeling of ownership and having roots gives you security and confidence to face any problem in your life. Your growth will depend on taking root in a place where you can feel safe and protected at the same time.

Jupiter in 4th house:

You are devoted to your home and family and often receive help from your parents. You enjoy open spaces and can do well in your hometown. Your disposition is happy, open and spontaneous, which will be projected in your future, reaching a happy and full old age. Bad times will not scar you, nor will they change your character. Material expansion of your life will manifest gradually and in a growing way; it is related to real estate and land investments in general.

Jupiter Trine Moon:

You have a very positive attitude toward life and this will be reflected in your emotional world. You transmit happiness, optimism and enthusiasm to people around you. Your positive disposition is likely to attract prosperity.

Jupiter Conjunct Saturn:

You are very disciplined and a bit rigid. Although life seems hard to you and with constant struggles, you have a clear and defined purpose of what you want to achieve. Poise and hard work are combined in your personality. You have business as well as political ability. You probably received orthodox religious training.

Your sense of expansion can be limited by your belief of hard reality. Try to develop thoughts that connect you with the abundance of the universe so that you can achieve your goals more easily and rapidly. Resignation to sacrifice and thoughts of struggle can be rooted deep inside you; from today on affirm that all you need comes to you without effort and at the right time.

Jupiter Trine Uranus:

You are original, creative, determined and practical, which enables you to achieve any goal you set for yourself. Your personal freedom is very important to you and you refuse to be tied down by convention and other limitations. You have great mental energy and can be very warm but not at all sentimental.

RETRACTION: Saturn in Cancer

The inhibition principle affects your emotional security. Your early childhood may have lacked tenderness or your family life may have been troublesome and because of this, you feel certain inhibitions about showing love and emotions. In spite of this, you feel responsible toward your family throughout your life. You can become hypersensitive, your feelings are easily hurt and you tend to withdraw to a place where you feel safe and protected. Basically you need emotional security, otherwise you will be shy, somber and lonely, and will have great difficulty understanding others.

Saturn in 4th house:

You feel responsible and are concerned about everything that relates to your home. In spite of feeling independent, you are afraid of leaving your parental home (if you already have done so) and also your past. You will be much happier away from your place of birth and could achieve more material success farther away. Your principal frustration may manifest through your excessive desire to please others, especially your parents. They may have been too strict and conservative, yet constantly imposed many responsibilities on you. You need a more intense emotional support to overcome your lack of affection and to increase your self-esteem.

Saturn Conjunct Mars:

You may experience a conflict between inhibition and action. In spite of having good organizational ability, you find it hard to control your energy flow, which could lead to impulsive actions, or, on the contrary, only thinking about your plans. It is important that you learn to act and bring your aspirations to fruition in an organized and gradual way, instead of just thinking without deciding what to do. You tend to seek approval before taking a step forward, and if your inhibitions are very great, you could harbor inner resentments much of the time.

Saturn Trine Moon:

Your strong emotional control allows you to make good decisions. But your practical sense could restrict your imagination; you don't like to be evasive or make plans without foundation. Your ambitions are very concrete and you clearly visualize each goal that you set for yourself. You arouse a feeling of confidence and loyalty in people that will make you popular. You are likely to have a successful social life and your relationships will help you to attain higher positions.

Success in life depends to a great extent on the balance between giving and receiving, expanding and retracting. Even dwelling on the one and only failure you may have had is like not attempting anything.

* Chapter 4 *******
Finances, source of income.
Work in relation to your employment.

Described below are some possible sources of income. They may coincide, or not relate at all to your professional vocation.

FINANCES: Taurus on 2nd house cusp

You are very good in business and are likely to earn money through investments, persevering in your work and good managing. You will reach the financial stability you long for with effort and dedication. In times of crisis, you will persist and move forward step by step. Although the world of business seems ideal for you, you also could earn money with projects related to land and cultivation or in something completely different such as arts and crafts.

You may spend a lot of money on comfort and luxuries. Though you have an inner confidence of always being able to overcome financial problems, you will have to learn to moderate and save to avoid future imbalances.

Ruler of 2nd house in 11th house:

Your income is closely linked with those of friends, your relationships, or to activities that you perform in certain social groups. You are likely to have influential friends who will help you to improve your income. There is a possibility of earning money through administrative or political positions in social organizations.

Earning money is in direct relationship to our self-esteem. If we consider ourselves valuable, money flows and comes into our lives. Work done with love and pleasure doesn't weigh us down and offers a better profit.

WORK IN RELATION TO YOUR EMPLOYMENT: Leo on 6th house cusp
